ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

VICTORIA, B.C., March 2nd, 1931.

PRESENT.

HIS HONOUR THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "An Act respecting Pound Districts" it is enacted that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council made public by notice in the British Columbia Gazette, constitute any part of the Province of British Columbia not within the limits of a municipality into a pound district:

And whereas under the provisions of this Act application has been made by proprietors of land in the Kaslo-Slocan Electoral District, in the vicinity of Mirror Lake—which may be more particularly described as follows: Commencing at the south-east corner of Lot 8737 Kootenay District, which is a point on the west shore of Kootenay Lake; thence west along the south boundary of said Lot 8737 and continuing west along the south boundary of Lots 484 and 11278 to the south-west corner of said Lot 11278; thence north to the north-west corner of said Lot 11278 and continuing north to the point of intersection with the south boundary of Lot 437, Kootenay District; thence east along the south boundary of said Lot 437 to its south-east corner, being a point on the west shore of Kootenay Lake; thence southerly along the said shore of Kootenay Lake to the point of commencement—to constitute the said district a pound district:

And whereas notice of intention to constitute such district a pound district was given in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and no objection has been made by any proprietor within the proposed pound district:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture and under the provisions of the "Pound District Act," His Honour the Administrator of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the above-described area be constituted a pound district.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

P.C. No. 156.

CERTIFIED TO BE A TRUE COPY OF A REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, APPROVED BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR ON THE 28TH JANUARY, 1931.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 7th January, 1931, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that application has been made by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to acquire 0.76 of an acre in Yoho National Park, in the Province of British Columbia, for right-of-way purposes in connection with the operation of the Company's railway.

The Minister is of the opinion that this application should receive favourable consideration, and therefore recommends that, under and by virtue of the provisions of section 6 (2) of chapter 33, 20-21 George the Fifth, authority be granted for the sale of the land described hereunder to the said Company for right-of-way purposes for the sum of one dollar on the understanding that the said land will revert to the Crown should it cease to be used for the purposes for which it was sold.

Description.—All that tract or parcel of land in the North-west Quarter of Section 8, Township 28, Range 18, west of the 5th meridian, within Yoho National Park, containing by admeasurement seventy-six hundredths of an acre, more or less, as shown lettered "U" and outlined in pink on the plan of the Canadian Pacific Railway Mountain Subdivision through Sections 8 and 17, prepared by J. Lonsdale Doupe, B.C.L.S. and D.L.S., dated 25th August, A.D. 1930, approved and confirmed by F. H. Peters, Surveyor-General, and of record in the Department of the Interior as Plan No. 37572 and of record in the Land Registry Office of Nelson, in the Province of British Columbia, as Plan No. 1739.

The Committee concur in the foregoing recommendation and submit the same for approval.

(Signed) E. J. LEMAIRE,

Clerk of the Privy Council.

To the Honourable

The Minister of the Interior.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified. Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(a.) To manufacture, construct, assemble, acquire, purchase, and deal in and sell all or any kinds of fuel for heating, lighting, cooking, or other purposes, and all or any parts and accessories thereto, and to improve same, and act as agent or agents for any person or company engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution of lighting, heating, or cooking fuel or gas or liquid of any kind, or accessories, or any part or article used in the manufacture and construction and use of same, and all parts and accessories thereto:

(b.) To carry on business of manufacturers, agents of, and to construct and assemble all or any kinds of lighting, heating, or other fuel or gas used in heating, cooking, or lighting, or in any other way appertaining to heating, lighting, or cooking:

(c.) To purchase, build, erect, or otherwise acquire and maintain plants and machines for the construction, assembling, manufacturing, repairing, remodelling, and rebuilding of machines or equipment for the purpose of heating, lighting, or cooking, and all or any parts and accessories thereto, and including builders' and contractors' supplies and requisites of all kinds:

(d.) To own and operate, including the right to manufacture, machinery, tools, and appliances of all kinds capable of being used in connection with the objects and operations of the Company:

(e.) To adopt such means of making known stock, equipment, and products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in such manner as its best adapted for the Company's purposes:

(f.) To import, export, manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in all things in connection with the Company's business and undertaking:

(g.) To carry on the business of manufacturers' agents or representatives, and to act in the capacity of agents for the manufacturers of goods for any of the purposes hereinafter enumerated as part of the objects:

(h.) To amalgamate with any other company or firm or person or persons carrying on any business included in the objects of this Company, and to sell the business, undertaking, and all or any part of the property and estate of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for the shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any company, or to purchase the business of any company or firm or person or persons, and all or any part of the property or estates thereof, as a going concern or otherwise:

(i.) To lend and advance money or give credit to persons or companies and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee or become security for the performance of contracts by members of the Company or persons having dealings with this Company:

(j.) To remunerate any person, director, shareholder, firm, or Company rendering services to this Company, whether by cash payment or by the allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(k.) To exercise any of the Company's powers either alone or in connection with others, and either as principal or agent, and either by itself or by sub-contractors, agents, or otherwise, and either in the Province of British Columbia, the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, as may be determined by the Company:

(l.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully paid or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for agencies to be transferred to the Company, or any service or advantage to the Company, or for any valuable consideration, and to remunerate by the issue of fully or partially paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company or in the conduct of its business, or in procuring the Company to be incorporated, or for any valuable consideration as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To remunerate any employee of the Company in whole or in part by means of a share of the profits of the Company, or by remuneration varying with the profits earned or the dividends declared, or with the output or turnover of the Company, or with the results obtained by any employee of the Company for the benefit of the Company, and such remuneration may be in addition to the ordinary remuneration of such employee, and may be either in cash or by way of allotment of shares fully or partly paid, as the directors shall think fit; the powers herein conferred shall be exercised by the directors of the Company:

(n.) And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen, and not to restrict, the powers of the Company:

(o.) To buy, sell, and deal in petroleum and (or) natural gas and the products or by-products thereof; to own, hold, construct, or otherwise acquire and operate works and plants for the extraction of all and any kind of carbohydrate, liquids, carbons, and all or any other substances and products now known or hereinafter discovered to be obtainable from natural gas:

(p.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and generally deal in gas-meters, stoves, furnaces, engines, and other appliances, apparatus, and conveniences using gas, oil, or the products or by-products of petroleum oil or natural gas:

(q.) To acquire, and pay for in cash, stock, or bonds of this Company or otherwise, the good-will, rights, assets, and property and to undertake or assume the whole or any part of the obligations or liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 124 Pemberton Building, 625 Fort Street, Victoria, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, by Sydney Lewis Feecey and Victor Llewellyn Leigh under the style or firm of "Leigh Real Estate and Building Company," and all the assets and liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause 97 of the articles of association of the Company, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(b.) To carry on the business of real estate, insurance, and financial agents in all its branches:

(c.) To act as agent for others in the buying, selling, leasing, letting, or otherwise dealing in real and personal property, the collection of rentals, and in the placing and securing of loans upon real and personal property:

(d.) To carry on business as general contractors:

(e.) To enter into contracts with Governments, companies, corporations, or private individuals or with any party or parties for the construction, alteration, or improvement of buildings and works of all kinds, and of roads, railroads, wharves, or any works of a private or public nature:

(f.) To act as general builders, and to buy land and erect buildings and improvements thereon, and to cause the same to be subdivided into parcels:

(g.) To buy, hold, sell, manage, improve, lease, turn to account, dispose of, acquire, and deal in any real or personal property, lands, tenements, hereditaments of all kinds or any interest therein, and in any rights or property which the Company may deem necessary or convenient, and to develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company:

(h.) To purchase for investment or resale, to traffic in, and to acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, land, buildings, and hereditaments or any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, apartment-houses, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(i.) To acquire and take over any business or undertaking carried on upon or in connection with any land or building which the Company may desire to acquire as aforesaid or become interested in, and the whole or any of the assets and liabilities of such business or undertaking, and to carry on the same, or to dispose of, remove, or put an end thereto, or otherwise deal with the same as may seem expedient:

(j.) To establish and carry on, and to promote the establishment and carrying-on, upon any property in which the Company is interested, of any business which may be conveniently carried on upon or in connection with such property, and the establishment of which may seem calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such property or to facilitate the disposal thereof:

(k.) To advance and lend money to builders, tenants, and others who may be willing to build on or improve any land or buildings in which the Company is interested:

(l.) To invest the funds of the Company in mortgages secured upon real estate situate in the Province of British Columbia.

The objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall be deemed to be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

The Company has excluded from its memorandum of association clauses (j) and (k) of subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act."

(d.) To join in one association all cleaners and dyers who are interested in the progress and improvement of the cleaning and dyeing industry throughout British Columbia; to promote the consideration and discussion of all questions affecting the cleaning and dyeing industry, both retail and wholesale, and generally to watch over and protect the interests of persons and companies engaged in those industries; to give the Legislature and public bodies facilities for conferring with and ascertaining the views of persons engaged in the said industries; to diffuse amongst the members information on all matters affecting the said industries, and to promote the safety of all persons engaged in the said industries, and to print, publish, issue, and circulate such papers, periodicals, books, circulars, and other literary undertakings as may seem conducive to these objects:

(e.) To improve and elevate the technical and general knowledge of persons engaged in, or about to engage in, the cleaning and dyeing industry, and with a view thereto to provide for the delivery of lectures, and to encourage and promote an apprenticeship system:

(f.) To promote excellence in the carrying-out of the work of the said industry and just and honourable practice in the business; to arrange and promote the adoption of uniform working-hours and opening and closing hours among the members of the Association, and to provide for uniform and stabilized rates in the said cleaning and dyeing industry, both wholesale and retail:

(g.) To advance the interests of the Association and of its members by every legitimate means, and to elevate and bring the cleaning and dyeing industry to a higher state of perfection and to render that industry better able to serve the community:

(h.) To procure, furnish, and maintain suitable quarters for the use of its members for meeting-rooms, offices, and other purposes:

(i.) To take such steps as may be deemed advisable to protect the interests of its members and those who may have business transactions with such members:

(j.) To carry on the business of procuring the articles and supplies required by the members of the Association in their business at the most moderate cost, and to buy, sell, and deal in such articles and supplies as wholesalers or retailers or in such other manner as may appear expedient; to carry on the business of general merchants or retail traders in all its branches:

(k.) To raise or borrow money for any purpose of the Association, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Association, present or after acquired:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Association's objects or any of them; and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Association may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(m.) To redeem and reissue any shares of the Association:

(n.) To advance money to the members of the Association on such terms as may be deemed expedient, but on the security of real and personal property or on negotiable instruments or otherwise:

(o.) To hold, purchase, lease, or otherwise, acquire such lands as are required for the purposes of its business, and to sell, exchange, mortgage, lease, improve, develop, and manage the same:

(p.) To pay out of the funds of the Association all expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Association and conduct of its business:

(q.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(r.) To act as agent, broker, factor, or attorney in fact for its members or any of them or for others engaged in the same or a similar business, and to exercise on behalf of any person such rights, powers, privileges, and authorities as may be conferred upon it:

(s.) To enter into a membership agreement with each of its members with a view to ensure strict observance of the rules of the Association and such other regulations that may be prescribed by the directors of the Association from time to time:

(t.) To assess its members membership fees and to levy contributions for the purpose of defraying current expenses of the Association.
